Christmas Autumn Winter 2017

For Christmas this year, instead of the usual excess of red, green and tinsel - perhaps consider a quieter, but no less charming approach.

Rebecca Snowden, Interior Style Advisor at Furniture Choice, explains how to create a cosy, festive atmosphere: "This look is all about clean neutrals, with hints of texture and little pops of Christmas cheer scattered throughout."

"Cosy sofas are made even more inviting with soft, velvet pillows, furry throws and knits, and there are nods to 2017's major trends throughout, with pastels, texture and brass combining with a pared-back, modern Scandinavian style."

"Give your decorations a personalised touch with a fast and easy DIY hack. We've opted for eucalyptus here, but this element can be customised with any shrub or plant in your garden. Simply insert the plant of your choice into a transparent bauble, attach a string and you're good to go."
