Bringing together classic country style and a cool, modern touch - FurnitureChoice.co.uk is excited to introduce our range of grey painted dining furniture.

This range of dining tables and chairs pairs handsome, sturdy silhouettes and the warmth of natural wood, and wraps them together with a new twist. A sophisticated painted grey finish adds a fresh spin to these farmhouse classics, making this a versatile choice for most homes.

“These tables and chairs are built on familiar lines, but the dash of unexpected elegance from the grey paint really sets them apart, “ says Rebecca Snowden, Interior Style Advisor at FurnitureChoice.co.uk. “This creates a neutral, two tone look that can easily work in a home with rustic, wooden tones, as well as a clean, contemporary space.”

These generously sized dining tables are ideal for families and also extend further to accommodate more guests, while the chairs are made with a careful eye for detail, luxury and comfort. Their size and distinctive style make them an especially strong choice for open plan kitchen and dining spaces.

“There are many different ways to style these sets,” Rebecca advises. “Our simpler designs would look right at home in a clean, minimalist dining room, with the touch of grey being a subtle statement. On the other hand, mixing and matching textures is a great way to create a sophisticated space, so opting for a grey wood table and pairing it with an elegant velvet dining chair can create a rustic, luxe feel in the home.”
