

3 Ways to Decorate with Yellow at Home

Zesty, energising and robust, yellow is the versatile, happy-go-lucky colour that easily brightens up home décor. Go for bold this season by opting for a warm yellow shade that is in line with the deep, rich jewel tones that are trending for Autumn 2019.

Take a cue from Rebecca Snowden, Interior Style Advisor at Furniture Choice, who shares 3 ways to decorate with yellow at home.

1. Make a statement with a yellow and grey feature wall

Take on this trend in the living room with bold colour blocked yellow and grey walls. While these two contrasting shades balance each other out, this is nonetheless a daring look that works best alongside strong modern pieces with clean, simple elements. When done right, yellow adds a sunny burst to the room while grey's warm, neutral tone is a calming, sophisticated presence to the space.

“A yellow and grey feature wall is a refreshing choice for the living room as it provides a healthy dose of colour in colder months,” Rebecca explains. “Opt for a light shade of grey such as dove grey as it will bring out the bright and airy qualities of yellow.”

“Take the opportunity to also colour block in small doses, with yellow plant pots, vases, rugs and cushions. This ties the room together for a cohesive look.”

2. Use pops of yellow in a home office to boost creativity

For a more subtle approach that doesn't entail painting the walls, look at incorporating pops of sunny yellow in other parts of the home such as the home office. As a colour that inspires creativity and represents optimism, the addition of yellow to the study may just help get the creative juices flowing.

“Introducing bright yellow hues such as lemon or canary to your home office can easily be done without requiring a huge overhaul,” Rebecca says. “A simple wooden chair in yellow is an instant way to uplift a workspace with this cheerful, stimulating colour. The welcoming effect when paired with oak furniture can be further emphasised with other pops of yellow such as artwork and accessories that make the room feel more energised and dynamic.”

3. Accent with trendy yellow tones in the dining room

Yellow also works beautifully in the dining room, lending warmth and cheer to the heart of the home. Pick a deep yellow shade like mustard, honey or butterscotch; these darker yellow accents are set to be a major colour trend for Autumn 2019 and bring a fresh, vibrant twist to neutral palettes.

“Small pops of yellow can really add personality and bring life to a dining space,” Rebecca explains. “Look for accessories like cups and plates in a rich, golden butterscotch yellow for a splash of colour, and fill a cheerful yellow vase with fresh flowers to create an inviting atmosphere.”
